

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON SALESIAN STUDIES
APPLICATION FORM
(Revised January 1999)

Date _____

Name * _____ Phone _____

Address _____

1. Please describe fully the nature and scope of the project or study in terms of: (a) whether it is basic research, a popularization of basic research or other project intended to assist those who disseminate Salesian thought, (b) what contribution it is expected to make to Salesian studies, (c) how the project is to be accomplished and (d) the probable length of time needed to complete the project. Priority consideration will be given to those proposals that clearly and convincingly demonstrate a broader and more universal appeal. (You may attach a separate sheet for this purpose.)

* It is assumed that the person whose name appears on the application will serve as project director or principal investigator, who must always be an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales.

2. In the light of its nature and scope, please indicate how? the project will be effectively evaluated.

3. Have other sources of funding been investigated? If yes, which source(s)? How successful have these inquiries been ?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

4. What is the probability that funds from other sources will be forthcoming in pursuance of the project beyond its first year? Identify source and amount that is firmly committed or that can reasonably be expected.

5. How much money is needed from: ICSS Fund Other Source(s)

1st Year $ _____ $ _____

2nd Year _____

3rd Year _____

6. On a separate sheet, please give an itemized budget including such things as travel, supplies, consultant fees, etc. All items over $100.00 must include a justification on a separate sheet.

You may attach to this application any materials you feel will support your application, e.g., bibliography, letters of endorsement, etc. and mail to: Rev. Joseph F. Chorpenning, OSFS, Villa de Sales Oblate Residence, 8501 Flourtown Avenue, Wyndmoor, PA 19038, U.S.A. Email: jchorpen@sju.edu; Phone: (215) 836-1472 extension 13, FAX: (215) 836-7213